AIM OF POOLE GRAMMAR SCHOOL

“To promote and pursue excellence in a stimulating and creative environment, where all are committed to lifelong learning”

Home-School Agreement

The Governors and staff will strive to meet the aims of the school for every student and in so doing make every effort to:

- ◆ care for your son's welfare and happiness
- ◆ promote high standards of work and behaviour and stimulate a love of learning
- ◆ help your son to reach his potential and achieve personal excellence in all that he does
- ◆ develop your son's commitment and service to the school and wider community and develop his capability of working successfully in collaboration with and leading others
- ◆ provide information and support for his future career development
- ◆ provide a balanced curriculum which meets both statutory requirements and the needs of your son
- ◆ provide opportunities and encouragement to develop and discover interests and talents beyond the academic curriculum
- ◆ implement the school's homework policy with regular and appropriate tasks to continue learning beyond timetabled lessons
- ◆ keep you and your son informed about assessments of effort, progress and targets for improvement
- ◆ provide information about general school matters, events and successes
- ◆ provide clear channels of communication for you about any concerns that may arise and supply a calendar to keep you informed of key school activities and events
- ◆ consider any suggestions for improvement

Parents/Guardians

I/We will strive to support the aims of the school and in so doing make every effort to:

- ◆ support the school's rules and expectations for conduct, dress and appearance
- ◆ support my son in meeting requirements for homework, including checking/signing the homework diary in the Main School, providing a suitable location for home-study and monitoring completion of work
- ◆ contact the school regarding any concerns or problems relating to my son's work, health, welfare or behaviour
- ◆ discuss school progress reports and involvement in extra-curricular activities with my son
- ◆ attend appropriate parental consultation and information evenings
- ◆ ensure that my son attends school unless unfit to do so
- ◆ bring to the attention of the school any general concerns, issues or incidents for clarification and, if appropriate, action
- ◆ ensure an appropriate balance between activities outside school, including part-time employment, and the time available for school work
- ◆ support the school's rules for the use of ICT facilities, including email and the Internet, and of mobile devices.

The Student

I will strive to support the aims of the school and in so doing make every effort to:

- ◆ achieve my personal best through listening carefully and using class time effectively and appropriately
- ◆ ensure that outside activities do not adversely affect my progress in school
- ◆ serve the school community and become a valued member of it, caring not only for myself but also for the welfare of others and the reputation of the school
- ◆ attend school when fit to do so
- ◆ arrive calmly, punctually and correctly equipped for each lesson
- ◆ record and complete homework assignments fully and on time
- ◆ ask whenever I do not understand an assignment
- ◆ seek help and advice from a member of staff if I am unhappy in my work or in the way others treat me or due to matters outside school
- ◆ keep the school rules and behave in a courteous and helpful manner both in lessons and outside
- ◆ maintain a smart appearance in line with school regulations and be an ambassador for myself and the school
- ◆ take care of the school environment, ensuring that all property – personal and communal – is respected and safeguarded
- ◆ comply with the rules for the use of the ICT facilities, and mobile devices.
